

J. Robert and Catherine P. Warmbrod Graduate and Research Fund

Scholarship funds are available to enhance the quality of graduate education and research in the department. These funds may be used to support: graduate student and faculty research; visiting lecturers, consultants or professors; registration or tuition fees for graduate students or faculty attendance at symposia, workshops, or conferences pertaining to their graduate studies; graduate courses taught or to be taught; or research.

Applications and guidelines are available on the HCRD website. Completed applications are to be submitted to Dr. Robert Birkenholz, Chair, Graduate Studies Committee by October 1, 2011, in Room 208 Agricultural Administration Building. Applicants may also be interviewed by a selection committee. Recipients will be notified by Dr. Ken Martin, Interim Chair, Department of Human and Community Resource Development, who will administer the funds.

The total amount to be awarded will be determined annually and may be distributed across several recipients. Describe your budget in detail and how funds will be used on your application. A final report is required.
